SOCIAL EVENTS AND PERSONAL MENTION

SUMMER DANCES ATTRACT VISITORS TO BON AIR

Announcements Made in Reference to Many Summer Vacation Trips to Senshore and Mountain Resorts.

The dances given at Bon Air on Fri tertained over Sunday following the zie ance at the Bon Air Club, and the Cherokee Tea Garden has also been the gathering place for some very pleasant and interesting people. Some of those noted at the last dames were Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Wortham, Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Wortham, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. J. Scott Parrish, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Powers, Mr. and Mrs. John Armistead, Mr. and Mrs. Hatke, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. G. Jeter Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Wherry, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Wherry, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Bullington, Dr. and Mrs. Fout, Misses Eliza Montgomery, Martha Martin, Ayliff Watson, Mildred Lefew, Elise Smith, Spicer Pelouse, tha Martin, Aylin Watson, Mildred Lefew, Ellise Smith, Spicer Pelouse, Alice Reed, Nicketi Johnston, Mildred Hemmingway, of Norfolk; Cary Tal-cett, Anna Calmes, Mary Bullington, Talcett, Cocke, Christian, Ella Ander-son, of Norfolk; Margaret McCluer, Ellyson; Messrs, Carl Walker, Mann Page, Lewis Larus, Fontaine Jones, Villiam Smith, Charles Morris, Epes, Peter White, Northrup, Dr. Wright, Dr. Bowen, Dr. McGavock, Dr. Bruek, lack Waterman, of Norfolk, and many Going Abroad.

Mrs. H. C. Rawley and H. J. Rawley are leaving town to-day for Baltimore, from which place they are sailing on June 17 to spend some time abroad, Mrs. Rawley and Mr. Rawley will go

Married in Florida.

A quiet but pretty wedding was celebrated Thursday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Marshall, formerly of this city, but now of Jacksonville, Fla. when their daughter, Miss Louise Martin Marshall, became the bride of David C. Truett, of South Carolina. The entire lower floor was thrown once to the guests and does Carolina. The entire lower floor was thrown open to the guests, and decerated in palms, ferns and smilax, a color scheme of pink and green being used everywhere. The bride was becomingly gowned in a cream-colored serge suit, with hat and gloves to match, and carried a shower bouquet of liles of the valley and Bride roses. She entered the parlor on the arm of her father, and they were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Dr. W. E. Meintosh. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Bessie Marshall, as maid of honor. She wore a white voile gown with a girdle of pink satin, and carried an armful of pink satin, and carried an armful of pink satin, and carried an armful of Killarney roses.

After the ceremony, which was per-formed by Dr. J. B. French, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Mr. and Mrs. Truett left for Lake Toxaway and other resorts in North Carolina. They will be at home after July 1 in Jacksonviller. The bridal party and out-of-town guests were entertained very charmingly at Atlantic Beach on the night previous to the wedding night previous to the wedding to-day on board the steamship Vater-land to join a party of friends travel-ing through Europe, Egypt and Palestine for the summer months. Mrs Maclin is one of the five teachers of the John Marshall High School spend-ing their vacation abroad. Charity Card Party.

A charity card party will be given o-morrow morning at 10 o'clock at 120 Grove Avenue, and a number of from a from the arrendy been reserved for tables have airendy been reserved for the affair, which is for the benefit of the Ice Mission. Auction bridge and five hundred will be played, and tables may be reserved in advance through Mrs. George Styll. It will be a very attractive and delightful function, and all interested are invited to attend.

of Interest Here.

Says the Washington Post:

'Ambassador and Mrs. Thomas Nelson Page have gone to Fluggi from Rome for the water cure, and will occupy the apartment vacated after a capy the apartment vacated after a forinight's stay by Queen Elena and the royal children."

In the North.

Dr. and Mrs. Maithew J. Connell, of this city, left. Saturday evening for a vacation in the North. Dr. and Mrs. Connell expect to be in New York for a few days, and will then visit Dr. Connell's old home and friends in New Jersey. They will return to Richmond in about ten days.

Martin—Council.

Martin—Council.

The marriage of Miss Helen Council and Cabell R. Martin was quietly celebrated on the evening of June 11 at 8.30 o'clock at Pine Street Baptist Church parsonage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. B. Hutson, D. D., pastor of the church.

pastor of the church.

Lawn Party.

One of the most interesting charity events of the week will be the lawn party this evening, which will be held on the campus of Richmond College for the benefit of the Jee Mission.

Japanese lanterns will be hung about the grounds, and refreshments will be served at rustic tables decorated in garden flowers. The hours are from 6 to 10 o'clock and all interested are cordially invited to attend.

IN AND OUT OF TOWN.

Miss Katherine Taylor, who has been in Radford for the past several months, is now the guest of the Misses Vaden at "Buck Hill" for the summer.

Miss Mary Stuart Cocke will leave shortly for the University of Virginia, where she will be the guest of her grantparents, Dr. and Mrs. Francis

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Culp have returned to the city, after spending the week-end at Virginia Beach.

Mrs. Anna Branch Cabell has gone to Keswick, where she will spend some time, before leaving for the Virginia Mountains.

Robert Goodwin is expected home the latter part of this week from the Vir-ginia Polytechnic Institute.

Mrs. Robert Page Grymes has left for Philadelphia, where she is visit-ing Lifeutenant and Mrs. Robert Ed-munt Wright.

A. Langstaff Johnston, Jr., who has been in New York City for the past week, has returned to Richmond. Arthur L. Adamson has returned from Virginia Beach, where he joined his wife for for the week-end. Miss Ethel Minatree, of this city, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Allan Phil-lips at their home in Newport News.

Mrs. W. O. Moore has returned to the city, after a visit to Virginia Beach. Taylor Scott and Morsen Keith have returned to Richmond, after attending the past session at the University of Virginia. William Hodges Mann, Jr., left last evening for Spencer, where he will attend the Bill-Wilson wedding on Wed-Mrs. J. B. F. Joynes and her daugher, of Newport News, are the guests of relatives in this city. Charles H. Hurkamp has returned to his home near Fredericksburg, after a brief visit to Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Selinger has returned to Washington, after spending a few days in Richmond.

Mrs. Thomas Brander and Miss Lizzle Brander are spending some time at the Burbank Cottage, Virginia Beach.

Miss Sallie M. Puryear has been the recent guest of Miss Booten in Orange, before leaving for her summer home, in Madison, Mrs. Guy A. Sager, of Newport News, has recently moved to this city, where she will be joined later by Mr. Sager. Miss Mamie Watson, of Danville, and Miss Elizabeth Clemmer, of Norfolk are visiting Miss Bessie Herbert at her home, on Grove Avenue.

Mrs. Gardner Plumley has returned to her home, in Charleston, W. Va., after a short visit to her mother, Mrs A. Seddon Jones, on Floyd Ave-his home, "Poplar Grove," in Mathews County, after a brief stay in this city. Mr. and Mrs. James F. Minor, of this city, have been guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. John A. Gilmere, In Char-the city, after spending the week-end at Virginia Beach.

Mrs. C. S. Taylor Burke, of Alexandria, is visiting her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Landon R. Mason, here.

Miss Mary Nicholas Ainslie is the guest of Miss Lucile Mortimer at her home at the University of Virginia. Mr. and Mrs. James C. Martin, ot Richmond, are stopping with friends at Virginia Beach.

Charles Watkins and Harry Frazier, Jr., have returned to the city, after a short stay at the University of Vir-

Mrs. E. S. Robinson, of Newport News, has as her guest, Mrs. William P. Smith, of Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. John Valentine have returned from Lynchburg, where they have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crutchield. Mr. and Mrs. William H. White and their daughter, Miss Emma Gray White, are at the Greenbrier White Sulphur

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Shipp are among the Richmond people spending this month at Virginia Beach.

Miss Aileen Gregory, of Lynchburg, is the guest of friends in this city for Miss Rosalie Harwood left vesterday for Virginia Beach where she will visit Miss Alma Glennan.

Miss Eugenia May Jobson, of this city, is the guest of Miss Elizabeth Finegan in Newport News Miss Eva M. Hall, of Los Angeles,

If You Could---

and all this, without being touched by hand-

Then 'most any one could make his own relatives of Mr. Doubles in Bay City. | GRIEVING FOR MOTHER, trowitz and Simon Kantrowitz, of Hampton, attended the graduation in this city of Miss Hannah Kantrowitz.

LYNCHBURG HIGH SCHOOL HAS FINAL EXERCISES

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Lynchburg, Va., June 15.—The com-encement exercises of the Lynchburg High School were held in the presence of a large gathering of people to-night at the Academy of Music, ad-mission being by ticket. The program was as follows:

Invocation—Hev. Claudius F. Smith. Saiutatory—Raine Pettyjohn. "Swing Song" (Lohr), "Out in the Fields" (Briss)—Girls' Glee Club. "Changes and Growth in the High-chool"—Miss Minnigerode.
"High School Athletics"—Edward

Die Wacht am Rhein, Schnecken-burger; Die Lorelei, Silsher. "High School Publication and Clubs"

"The Honor League"-William Wra

"Forget-Me-Not" (Glese)-Girls' Glee Delivery of diplomas and prizes-Mr. Black. Valedictory—Miss Onthank.

High School song. Benediction—Rev. George Floyd

Rogers.
The members of the 1914 class are:
Fartial graduates, February: Abigail Branch Ford, Mildred Bruce Hud-

Full graduates, February: Carl Mat-Full graduates, February: Carl Matthew Casey, Joseph Purnell Cromwell, Powell Garland Dillard, Edward Marshal Frost, Allen Stewart Gish, Richard Edward Guthrie, Morris Hamet Hester, Richmond Lawrence Moore, Charles Harold Owen, James Alfred Patterson, Marcellus Leslie Slaughter, William Hilmann Wranek, Charlotte Page Kelly, Elizabeth Horton Lochridge, Ruth Marian McGregory, Marian Fay Myers, Jeanetto Waugh, Frnestine E. Williams, Rebecca Voorheis Yancey, Annette Elizabeth Younger.

rain Fay Myers, Jeanette Waugh, Ernestine E. Williams, Rebecca Voorheis Yancey, Annette Elizabeth Younger, Mary Flizabeth Onthank.
Fartial graduates, June: Stephen Peter Lee, David Godfrey Myers, Thomas Gibson Woodson, Agnes Scott Minnigerode, Verna Penn Morris.
Full graduates, June: Frank Lloyd Foster, Samuel Miller Foster, Perry Elwood Hamilton, Jasos Irving Ilickey, Stancly Chaney Moulton, Charles Raine Fettyjohn, Thomas Emmett Waugh, Charles Russell Woodson, Mary Louise Bunch, Bettie Mabel Gates, Mary Kathleen Garvin, Nancy Josephine Klase, Funice Randolph Logwood, Nancy Ellyson Lewis, Willie Etna Suits.

GIVEN IN CLASS OF TWELVE Alexandria, Va., June 15.—Dislomas of graduation were to-night conferred on a class of twelve at the annual commencement exercises of the Alexandria Iligh School. Melais were also awarded.

An address to the graduates was delivered by E. H. Russell, president of the Fredericksburg State Normal School. Awards of distinction were made by Clerk Harry Kirk, and Superintendent W. H. Sweenev awarded the diplomas of graduation. Following is a list of the graduates: Misses Corinne Reardon, Helen R. Elake, Madellne Louise Martin, Flora Glasgow, Mabel Henderson, and Messrs Francis E. Johnston, Barton Phillips.

of Christ Episcopal Church, officiating of Christ Episcopal Church professor of Latin and instructor in tireck at the university, was best man, and Miss Elizabeth White, sister of the bride, maid of honor. An informal reception followed the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Barton left for a Northern trip.

Grante Quarries Leased.

Fredericksburg, Va., June 15.—The grante quarries on the farm of R. Innes Taylor, on the Rappahannock River, about two miles above the city, have been leased by Joseph H. Davis for a term of years, and work was for a term of years, and work was hospital in a critical condition, as a result in a critical condition, as a result of being struck last night by a street car, while other members of the family had gone to Wertz to accompany the body of his mother, Mrs. Faunte I. Hambrick, who died on Sunday afternoon in a local hospital. Young Hambrick went to Norwich last night to accompany a young welast night to accompany a young wo man to her home, she having been to the Hambrick home, to be with the family, which was deeply afflicted as the result of Mrs. Hambrick's death. the result of Mrs. Hambrick's death.

STRUCK BY STREET CAR rry Hambrick Perhaps Fatally Injured While Sitting on Track. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Later, the car came along, and, according to the motorman, P. S. Grant.
Hambrick was sitting on the track with his head in his hands as if asleep. The motorman was unable to stop his car before striking the boy, although he used his emergency brake, although he used his emergency brake, and did everything possible to prevent the accident. The boy's left leg was horribly mangled, and his right foot crushed. He also received several cuts about the head. It was necessary to amputate his left leg. To-day Hambrick's condition is regarded as extremely critical, and it is possible that the right foot will have to be amputated in an effort to save his life. The young man was questioned The young man was questioned about the accident, but he is unable to recall how it occurred. He says he remembers nothing that happened af-

Barton—White,
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Charlottesville, Va., June 15.—An interesting event in local society was the marriage of Miss Joan M. White, daughter of the late Judge John M. White, and George L. Barton, Jr., of Suffolk, instructor of Latin at the University of Virginia. The ceremony took place at 5 o'clock at the bride's home, the Rev. H. B. Lee, D. D., rector of Christ Episcopal Church, officiating James S. McLemore, adjunct professor Francis E. Johnston, Barton Phillips, Eldon Raison, Joseph Chauncey, Rob-ert E. Knight, Jr., Howard St. Clair, Medals donated by Representative C.

Miss Eva M. Hall, of Los Angeles, Cal. is the guest of Mrs. E. S. Mc-Faddin, of 314 North Twelfth Street.

Mrs. Kendler and her two children, of Richmond, are spending the summer months with Mrs. Kendler's mother. Mrs. Durrett, at "Red Hill," near Charlottesville.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Doubles and little son, of Grove Avenue, are spending the months of June and July with of the bride on Wednesday, June 24.

Approaching Marriage.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Fredericksburg, Va., June 15.—Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Redd, of Middlesex County, announced the approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Daisy Waring Redd, to Thomas Dandridge be known as Cartright & Davis, Inc. The company will market the stone in Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware, Virginia and the District of Columbia.

IOWA MASONS CONTRIBUTE TO WASHINGTON MEMORIAL

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Alexandria, Va., June 15.—The Grand Lodge of Masons of Iowa, in session in Des Moines, has donated the sum of $3,000 to the George Washington Masonic National Memorial Associa-Roanoke, Va., June 15.—Harry Hard-brick, eighteen years old, is in a local tion, of this city.

A letter was received to-day by C. H. Callahan, local secretary, telling of the donation. The letter was sent by George H. Schoonuner, deputy grand master of Iowa, in which the writer stated that he has also received a total of thirty subscriptions for life membership in the association at $100 cach, which will bring this to $3,000 or a grand total of $6,000 from the State of Iowa.

Recently the Grand Lodge of Michigan made a contribution of $5,000 to the project.

It is now believed that other grand lodges in the country will take similar A letter was received to-day by C.

as if lodges in the country will take similar action, which will insure the crection of the temple in the next few years.

Supreme Court Proceedings.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Wytheville, Va., June 15.—Proceedings in the Supreme Court of Appeals to-day were as follows: Mrs. Nannie to-day were as follows: Mrs. Nannie E. Bane vs. Adair et als., and Baine E. Bane vs. Adair et als., and Baine, administrator, vs. Adair et als., argued by H. C. Gilmer and A. B. Whitaker for appellant and W. J. Henson for appellee and submitted; Johnston vs. Johnston, argued by W. B. Snidow for appellee and submitted; Straley vs. Esser et als., argued by Barnes Gillespie for appellee, and continued until to-morrow morning.

Next cases to be called: Hartford Fire Insurance Company vs. Farris; Newberry vs. Watts; Mitchell Transparent Ice Company vs. Triumph Electric Company; Edgewood Distilling Company vs. Mays, administrator; Pocahontas Consolidated Colleries Company vs. Hairston.

Cards Are Issued.

Charlottesville, Va., June 15.—Cards are out announcing the approaching marriage of the Rev. William Allen McAllister and Miss Madge Carew Eggleston, the event to take place on Jun 24 at the home of the bride at Axton Va. The groom was a resident of this city for many years and attended the University of Virginia prior to entering the ministry. Miss Eggleston is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Daniel Eggleston, of Axton.

For Real Wednesday Values See this space To-Morrow

HAVE YOU SEEN THE

New Method Gas Ranges PETTIT & CO.'S?

THE REINACH CO., Inc.

107 E. BROAD STREET. MILLINERY-Women's and Misses' Outer Apparel

Bridal Presents

come from James', which means they are of the best quality and right in style, as we carry only the latest designs and our stock is fresh and upto-date. Our prices are low.

The Diamond Merchant,

Jeweler and Optician,

Seventh and Main Streets.

$45 -- $1 Weekly

The "Jewel" tango outfit includes the Columbia "Jewel" Grafonola, illustrated here, together with an ssortment of dance selections. onsist of Hesitation Waltzes, Tan-

Mattchiche and a supply of needles. SPECIAL NOTICE. All Columbia Records will play Victor machines, and vice versa.

Talking Machine Co. 714 East Main Street.

THE KAUFMANN STORE

Mid-Summer Millinery

ARIS, Vienna, Berlin, Longchamps—they revel in marvellous midsummer styles. And Richmond already revels in the Kaufmann new chapeaux-the classics of their types. The skillful "whisks" and touches are imparted by dextrous fingers born to the art of hat-

A distinctly new note is seen in these charming creations that are on display in our showroom to-day.

For tailored wear the close-fitting sailor is still much in vogue, but the dressy hat is being shown a trifle larger.

White Satin Top Hats, trimmed in wings and flat flowers,

Black Velvet Crown Hats, with white hemp brims trimmed in glace ribbon and flowers, $6.98. Dressy White Hats, with pink crepe covering, and small pink and white gardenias, $7.50. Fashion's index finger points unerringly to the Panama. Nothing is so utterly comfortable, nothing permits of so varied a scheme in trimming as this excellent fibre. The Panama is never passe.

For the week end and outing wear we are showing a full line of Panamas and Felt Top Hats, with plain ribbon bands, $3.98 and $4.98.

Special This Week Only!

Regular $6.00 Dozen Cabinet Size Photos at the remarkable price of $2.00. Also for a few days only, one dozen Postal Cards and one large Cabinet Folder, $1.00.

Polito Studio

611 East Broad Street, S. A. Polito, Artist and Photographer.

Moving Pictures Forest Hill Park

Richmond's Greatest Amusement Park is Now Open to the Public, with many adequate amusements

The Pictures Are Changed Daily

Special Arrangements Made for Picnic Parties

Post Toasties

Separate the most nutritious part of the kernels of choicest white corn-

If you could roll each separate bit, thin and ribbony, under 40 tons pressure-

If you could cure, sweeten and salt it to get the same delicious, delicate flavor that

If you could pass the flaky bits in at the top of a great oven 30 feet high, through which they would slowly move to the bottom and come out toasted to a golden-brown-

If you could cook this carefully selected part just as we cook it-

Anywhere in America, ten or fifteen cents (according to size) will buy a large, tightly sealed package of this dainty food-

Sweet and crisp, fresh from the factory, and ready to eat with cream, immediately the package is opened.

Grocers everywhere sell Post Toasties.